

Other Ways to EsSkate in Miami Beach

You don't have to skate the Great EsSkate. You can bike it.

Bikes are a great way to get around Miami Beach, whether on the Great EsSkate or on your own. Rent a bike on Miami Beach at:

Fritz's Bike Shop
730 Lincoln Road
305-532-1954

Miami Beach Bicycle Center

601 5th Street
305-674-0150

If you have the time and energy, here are a few suggestions to inspire you. We recommend that you do some research on your own (check your goodie bag for more inspiration) and always call ahead. You never know on South Beach. . . .

For the athletically inclined, there is:

Flamingo Park

999 11th Street
305-673-7730 for recreation and golf info
305-673-7761 for tennis info

It's a great green space where you'll also find the Police Athletic League gym and a pool with lap lanes.

Rent a kayak at:

South Beach Kayak

1771 Purdy Avenue
305-332-2853

Shane Kayak Center

6500 Indian Creek Drive
305-861-8899

If you're looking for something a little more leisurely, stroll through the lobbies of the renowned hotels south of the host hotel along Collins and Ocean Drive for a drink or just to gape at the décor.

Walk over to Lincoln Road Mall to eat, drink, shop and take in the amazing parade of characters. Walk a few blocks south on Washington to discover Espanola Way, a charming street full of food, drink and atmosphere.

The Wolfsonian, a museum of 20th-century propaganda and other collections of the not-too-distant past, is at 1001 Washington Street. Too highbrow for a skate weekend? Try the World Erotic Art Museum at 1205 Washington. Like we said, you never know on South Beach. . . .
